TURNING CENTER VIDEO SERIES 3

Lightning Learning Sparked by Data™ ⚡

The Turning Center Video Series 3 establishes some of the important planning steps required for writing a turning operation program. The processes covered include basic turning, grooving, threading, and drilling.

Learning Hours 2.5

Available in Multiple Languages

Learning Objectives

- Understand the preparatory steps required for turning center program writing.
- Recognize the requirements for program writing for basic turning processes.
- Recognize the requirements for program writing for grooving processes.
- Recognize the requirements for program writing for threading processes.
- Recognize the requirements for program writing for drilling processes.

Course Topics

Series 3

- Turning Process Preparation for Programming

- Programming for Basic Turning Processes

- Programming for Grooving Processes

- Programming for Threading Processes

- Programming for Drilling Processes

THORS is bringing together the best minds across many industries to create an ever-expanding library of courses that will rapidly increase the Manufacturing IQ® of your team.

sales@thors.com
+1 (330) 576 4448

5054 Paramount Blvd
Medina, OH 44256